“ I was saddened to hear of your loss. Please know that we will lift you up in prayer during this time. As you have come to realize, we can never be fully prepared for the greif we feel when we lose a parent. Yet,when a loved one faces the illness that your mother faced,we come to realize that death becomes a friend. Knowing that she is at home with the Lord does not remove the grief of out loss, but it does give comfort. We will pray for you and your family.

“ David and Family: What wonderful statements made about a very special person. I met Pam a very short time ago in Macon, at McEvoy HS. Was oh so surprised to find her here when I was lucky enough to get a job at GCSU. David, she immediately looked at me, called me by the dreaded nickname, then by the dreaded full name....we both laughed and she relearned to call me by just my one name. She was a special lady, I've just known it since HS. My prayers to all of you.##imported-begin##Nora Wall##imported-end##
