“ My memories of Pat go back many years. I remember when he took over Coca Cola in Eatonton when Mr. Cheek retired. I also worked with Pat at the Prison. He was such a loving and caring person. If you knew him you LOVED him. So sorry that I will not be able to be there to say my good byes as I have medical issues and have to be at Dr. on Wednesday. Just remember all of the good times and memories that ya'll had with him. You now have a special angel looking out for each and every one of you.
