“ I knew Penny through advertising in the yellow pages. I was her sales representative. Penny had a huge heart and was always trying to help others. Though troubles often came her way she was optimistic. Penny was clever, inventive, generous and ruthlessly defensive of her friendships. I wish I could have met Earl, she lived him so, he had to be special to knock her off her feet as he did. I could set and talk with Penny for hours about anything- sometimes I did. I'd even call some weekend afternoons or on the way home from vacation to pass the time catching up.

Janice White and Nadine Hudson: dear friends.

Children and family, I know you were proud to have such a beloved mother and sister.

I got a new puppy a few days ago and someone suggested I name it Penny. I said oh that's a great name because I know a lady named Penny and I have such fond feelings for her. I was deeply saddened when I looked her number up to find this obituary- we all lost her too soon.

Rest In Peace, Penny. You've touched and changed our lives in beautiful ever lasting ways. May Jesus take your burdens and give thee rest.
