“ I met Pete many years ago when he visited his sister Kathy Raines we became friends he would make you laugh even if I was having a bad day .I would shop at Ace and if he saw me getting out of the truck he would start aggravating me then. Pete will be missed but not forgotten

“Pete was my buddy, though we haven't been able to hang out in a while. He'd brag on his kids and we'd go coyote hunting! I remember basically ruining a hunt because of laughing so loud due to our comedy of errors...holding the light wrong...finally getting a shot, missing the shot...Pete making some loud comments about the miss...me almost swallowing my call....I'll miss you Pete, but thanks for some great fun and memories...at a time in my life that wasn't always peachy.

“I spent many of my days working the register for daddy just talking to Mr. Pete at Ace. He always kept me entertained and he let me leave as early as I could to go off and he'd cover for me. He always had me laughing and was always telling me wild stories. He was more of a close uncle to me....loved him dearly. Even when his health worsened he maintained his hilarious sense of humor and personality always. He was a one of a kind human being they don't make people with a heart of gold often but he's one of the few. You will be missed Mr. Pete!

“Always made me laugh and kept me smiling with his crazy stories. A few weeks before he took a turn for worse he was telling me all about his motorized wheelchair flipping over. Going to miss ya Mr. Pete. And I know his sweet grandbabies will miss him, especially Caeden(?). He adored her
