“ *To the Levendis Family.
I am an old friend of Peter. I was looking for him on the Internet and was so saddened to read of his passing. I knew Peter forty years ago. We rode together in White Plains, New York. Spent many wonderful days together on horseback and in the little house in Florida, New York. I remember several Easter Sundays spent with his family who were always so kind to me and a great sailing trip from New York to Cape Cod and back. That was so long ago. Peter was a wonderful young man and I am sure he became an even better man as the year's past. I loved him very much. Mrs. Levendis my sincere condolence's to you and your daughters.*

MS

Peter and I were close friends in late 1950's. We met at Lakeville Stables, a hack stable right off the LI Expressway where we both worked out butts off so we could ride for free . He was an excellent and fearless rider and a ton of fun to know. So long ago but those days are important memories.

“ So sorry to find this so late! Peter was my shoer for many years, and I considered him a friend. Lost track of him once he moved, and I was just looking for him on the internet and found his obituary. Please accept my heartfelt condolences, he was such a wonderful man.##imported-begin##Pam Ashford##imported-end##

“ Penelope,Alex, and Katherine, Please accept my sincere sympathy. Peter was such a nice friend. Many conversations over the years of cutting his hair, and just stopping by to say hello. He always spoke of his family and where and what everyone was doing. It was always so obvious of his love for you all. I will miss my friend Peter.##imported-begin##Donna Bennett##imported-end##
