“ *My memories of my dear and closest friend spans over nearly 50 years. We shared a bond that will be with me forever. She faced her battles with faith, hope, and cheerful spirit. What a tribute to her life.
I can only hope I can follow her lead when faced with trials & tribulations which come to us all during the journey of life. My feelings of hurt and loss cannot compare with those her family is having. My prayer is that we can both focus on our precious memories of Phyllis to help fill the void left in our lives. She certainly demonstrated the way to face our trials through her handling of difficult times with grace, love, hope & faith. What an amazing spirit she displayed. These are hard shoes to fill. I am thankful I was able to be with her during the time of her greatest loss, her biggest supporter & beloved Lyman, who was faithfully by her side. That is a tribute of a real bond. Phyllis will remain in my heart and thoughts forever. I thank her for being my friend and always there for me even during her most difficult times. She never failed to contact me when she knew what i was facing. That is a the real meaning of a true friend*

“ I am a nurse at Oconee Regional who had the sheer pleasure of meeting your Mom and Dad recently. In the course of one of our conversations, we discovered Doris Prosser, who was their neighbor, is also my Aunt. She loved them as much as they seemed to love her. All of my patients are special to me, but every now and then there is that one who never leaves your thoughts and leaves a lasting imprint on your heart. She was that one for me. She had such a sweet spirit and the time we spent together and sweet conversations we had will always hold a special place in my heart. Although the time I knew them both was short lived, I thank God for the blessing they both were to me. May they both rest in peace with Our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ....may that reassurance as well as the thought of them reuniting in Heaven bring peace to each of you now and in the days to come. Sending my love, prayers, and condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Benson.

“ Craig, Lauren and Family my heart goes out to you ! How do you condense such a beautiful woman into mere words ? She was the epitome of a Christian woman. She was a shining star among stars. She celebrated life , holidays , milestones with gusto. Sunday's were so special, and she put out such a wonderful spread of food ! She was happiest when her family was happy. She provided for her family in all ways, and she served as an example for young women. I feel privileged to have known her and for my children to have been raised around her. She was always even tempered and kind. She represents what is good and wholesome and worthwhile, God and family.
