

Randall "Doc" Taylor

November 18, 1949 - August 8, 2025

A Celebration of Life for Doc (some of you may know him as randy or Randall Taylor)

Saturday, August 16th 4:30 PM

Doc's House – Message me for the address

Please bring a chair if you can we are having a Fish Fry.

It's with a heavy heart that I share the news that my daddy Doc-E, has gone to be with the Lord. While it's hard to put into words the kind of man he was, anyone who knew him knows he was truly one of a kind. Doc had a way about him. if he liked you, you knew it, and if he didn't... well, you knew that too. He loved his family and friends, he could catch a fish as big as me lol, and he was just all around the best man on this earth that i knew. He left an unforgettable mark on everyone blessed enough to know him.

Now, Doc was never one for formalities, and he made it clear he didn't want a funeral or a viewing. That just wasn't his style. Instead, we're going to honor him in a way that's true to who he was — with a fish fry, good company, and plenty of laughter.

So on Saturday, August 16th at 4:30 PM, we'll be gathering at Doc's home to celebrate the incredible life he lived. This won't be a day for tears and sadness — Doc didn't like crybabies. It will be a day for smiles, for telling stories, for remembering the wild, funny, and loving moments we all shared with him.

If you have any pictures of Doc or with Doc, please bring them along. We'd love to see and share those memories. Bring any stories, big or small, that capture the spirit of the man we all loved so much. And if you can, bring a chair so you can sit back, relax, and enjoy the evening with us.

This day is about coming together, as friends and family, to celebrate that we were lucky enough to have Doc in our lives. Let's eat, laugh, and share in the joy of knowing that while he's no longer here with us, his spirit, his humor, and his love will always live on through us.

Hold your loved ones close. Tell the stories. Share the hugs. Because sometimes, tomorrow really is too late.

We look forward to seeing everyone there, and to filling the air with the kind of laughter and love that Doc would have wanted.

Previous Events

Gathering

AUG 16. 4:30 PM.

Doc'S Home

Tribute Wall

JS

“ JAMES & BRENDA SNELLGROVE lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

JAMES & BRENDA SNELLGROVE - December 26, 2025 at 12:07 PM

SH

“ Susan Askew Hartley lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

Susan Askew Hartley - October 05, 2025 at 12:43 PM

SH

“ He always would look like he was looking through binoculars when he saw me, I loved to be around him he made your heart feel good and would have you laughing. He told me we were kin some how but I can't remember how he said, he brought some pictures one day and showed me, Ai said we'll sir
I do have some great kin folks a d he was at t h e top of my list.I really miss him so much, I wasn't able to come to his house to celebrate because of health conditions, but you need to know I loved him dearly and really miss him so much.

Susan Askew Hartley - October 05, 2025 at 12:36 PM

JS

“ James snellgrove lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

James snellgrove - August 30, 2025 at 10:02 AM

FB

“ Frank Brannan lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

Frank Brannan - August 17, 2025 at 04:25 AM

MH

“ Doc was certainly a man's man. A very unique individual. I knew Doc through my father Gale Hooks who thought the world of Doc. My Father would tell the same old stories of Doc over and over with it always ending with Doc is a true one of kind ! i remember Doc in my early years of the eighties. He use to weld for my father doing root rakes for dozer and bill board work. Daddy would say Doc could weld two 2X4's together under water. I remember Doc working and welding out at daddy's shop with Fred I thinks was his name. Can't remember last name. Anyway, they would be welding, cutting steel and blasting Allman Brother's live at filmore east all day ! Daddy would be working somewhere else and my Mother and i would be home. So I was told to check on occasionally. sometimes bringing drinks and food my Mother had prepared. I remember Daddy telling me some of Doc's stories and his quick wit. One , when Doc was welding the tooth rakes for dozer's , Daddy came out and looked at the number Doc had welded and ask , Doc how many so you like ? Doc stood back look at the tooth rakes and hell Gale I like them all. He always had quick witted lines like that. There is a lot more lines and stories I could tell about Doc as I'm sure you all could. He was always good to me and my family. Was always there , very kind and a good soul. He was there when my Mother passed and my Father. I respected Doc and greatly appreciate him and his love for life and my family.. I share and will continue to share his one liners and wisdom the rest of my life. God bless you Doc you will not be forgotten.

Michael Hooks - August 13, 2025 at 09:31 PM

MB

“ I've known since I was about 13 years old and so very proud that he was my friend and Randy's also for sure.. So many good times and memories.He will surely be missed..He was one of kind.. after Randy died I had locked myself out of the house without my car keys but I had my phone and I tried to think of somebody to call to go get my spare key for my sister Tammy, needless to say I called Doc and no hesitation whatsoever .. Said girl where she live at 😊 ? I explained where she lived and shortly thereafter here he comes with my key. That's who Doc was.. every Christmas he would call me and say I just want to wish you a happy Noel to you and yours. I'm going to miss little things like that. I'm so sorry Jan your loss and Haley too. Sending big ❤️ hugs to you both ☐

Mary Barfield - August 13, 2025 at 01:17 PM

JL

“ Joann Lavender lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

Joann Lavender - August 13, 2025 at 04:35 AM

TT

“ Hi. My name is Patricia Theus, Randy knew me as Pat Franks. We are 1st cousins. We would love to come to the fish fry to share memories but we don't know your address.

Tricia (Franks) Theus - August 12, 2025 at 12:43 PM

HG

hey! the address is 118 little rd nw

halie golden - August 13, 2025 at 12:18 PM

LL

“ Linda Lavender lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

Linda Lavender - August 12, 2025 at 11:19 AM

TT

“ Definitely one of a kind. There will never be another. A real man's man that demanded respect. I will remember him fondly. Prayers to his family.

Terri Tanner-Rice - August 12, 2025 at 07:29 AM

CM

“ Connie Mullinnix McCoy lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

Connie Mullinnix McCoy - August 12, 2025 at 01:52 AM

JT

“ Some of my earliest memories are from when I was four or five years old, propped up on a pinball machine at bookies's rack and Q. My daddy would be wearing somebody out on the pool table. Grandma Jeanette's regulars would be stacking quarters up on that pinball machine so I could play as long as I wanted to. More often than not before the night was ever at hear somebody come up behind me and say, "What's this little BOY doing!?? " having hair down to my waist, but typically awareness pair of engineers overalls, I'd get so mad and I'd say, " stop calling me a little boy!! You just mad cause you need some hair on that cue ball head!" it wasn't unusual for him to make surprise visits to see us in Atlanta from time to time when I was a child, sometimes even making dramatic entrances through the bathroom window. It was great being a Taylor when I was young because having Johnny as a dad and Doc as a cousin and Lisa, as an aunt nobody was gonna mess with you and that was for sure. It's a shame what time and the world does to families and relationships, whether it be through death, geography or stubbornness. I sure hate to see another one go. My greatest condolences to Jan and Haley Rose.

Jennifer Taylor - August 11, 2025 at 11:56 PM

BW

“ Jan, I am at a loss for words. I know Randy (Doc) wouldn't want tears but I must shed a few. I've known him all my life and he was a one of a kind friend and gentleman. I know you've are going to miss him greatly and many of us will also. Yet I know you've made a lot of good memories to hold in your heart forever. Keeping you in my prayers,

Boni

Boni Watkins - August 11, 2025 at 06:28 PM

BW

“ I am at a loss for words.....Randy (Doc) was a one of a kind friend and gentleman. My heart goes out to you Jan but I know you've got a lot of sweet memories in your heart forever. He'll never be forgotten!

Love,
Boni

Boni Watkins - August 11, 2025 at 06:19 PM

MC

“ Doc you will be missed my friend.
Michael Calhoun

Michael Calhoun - August 11, 2025 at 12:44 PM

HG

you are more than welcome to come and celebrate his life with us, the address is 118 little rd nw, all of you are welcome!

halie golden - August 13, 2025 at 12:17 PM

LM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
Friend at Johnnie McDade Grocery

Luther Minor - August 11, 2025 at 12:40 PM

SP

“ I'm so sorry, Jan ❤️

sandra jones prosser - August 11, 2025 at 08:51 AM

JJ

“ My deepest sympathy to Randy’s family and friends. He will be sorely missed.

Joel Johnson
Oconee, GA

Joel Johnson - August 11, 2025 at 08:10 AM

DJ

“ Durwood Johnson lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

Durwood Johnson - August 11, 2025 at 08:06 AM

JC

“ Jasper Crooms lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

Jasper Crooms - August 10, 2025 at 04:42 PM

JL

“ Joseph Lavender lit a candle in memory of Randall Taylor

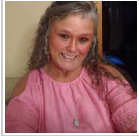

Joseph Lavender - August 10, 2025 at 02:54 PM

SH

“ Doc was always at my parents house Carol and David Brett when I was growing up. And we were still staying in touch after they passed away. He was always joking and cutting the fool. Doc was loved by so many

Shannon Harvill - August 10, 2025 at 02:49 PM

“ So sorry he was such a sweet man he would always speak with a smile prayers for all of the family and friends 🙏💔

Teresa Knowles - August 10, 2025 at 02:10 PM

GG

“ Randy and I kinda grew up together not only was he my first cousin but my very closest friend I've got some stories (memories) that will leave you laughing, I'm at a loss of words at this loss he will always be missed and remembered !

Gerald (Huck) Grimes - August 10, 2025 at 01:58 PM

MM

“ I have know Doc over 50yrs he was a good guy always the same old Doc each time I saw him. Last time I saw him was at the Huddle House we talked shortly he was coming out as I was going in. This man will be missed.

Marvin Meeks - August 10, 2025 at 01:55 PM