“ I learned so much from Dr. Miller in my news writing class at USF — many of his writing techniques still used in my current copywriting! Very sad to hear of his passing. My thoughts and prayers are with his family during this difficult time.

“ Randy was one third of probably the worst golfing team in the history of golfing! Randy, Larry Leslie and I spent a good share of our “research Fridays” kicking up the dust and turf at various golfing clubs in Tampa Bay...three of which are now out of business. He was also one of the best thesis advisors in the School of Mass Communications. One of my best friends, favorite colleagues and sports trivia buffs, the good Dr. Miller will be sorely missed.
We will miss you always my friend.
