“ The love my mom, Teresa, and him shared was beautiful. Everytime she got on the phone he would be in the background saying “what happened”, “what did they say”, “when are they doing that”... it would crack me up. They loved each other so much and mama is lost without him. We all are. He was kind, loving and understanding when it came to us kids. I’m gonna miss him so much. I hope to be half the person he was someday. “Heaven was needing a hero” □

“ Well we’re from way back at Pet. Enjoyed so many weekends with you and Brenda at yalls place on the lake. And also just hanging at our house in Mansfield. You’re no longer in pain but believe your family and friends are not. So many sad people that are gonna miss you and have that lingering void for years to come. Ride that bike thru those pearly gates Randy! RIP Paul and Brenda Campbell

“ Randy’s mother and my dad were brother and sister. I was the oldest grandchild and he was the youngest until Brad and Gina were born later. Randy was the cutest little boy and he would let me dress him up and all “us” kids would act out a play we made up. One time I dressed him up as a girl !! Everyone laughed, but he played a girl and sang with a hairbrush as a microphone!! The dad’s called him a “sissy” and he didn’t like that! We had a blast as kids! Shooting each other with the garden hose and eating homemade ice cream at Granny’s house. I miss those times and I’ll miss you, Randy! We didn’t get to see each other much at the end, but we all knew we had each other covered. Love and (((hugs))) from Phyl ... <~ that’s what he always called me. Say hello to my Mike and all our family there 🙌❤️👍👍

“ Randy, so many of my childhood memories include us playing at your grandparents house when you kids would visit. That was one of the perks living in front of my grant aunt and uncle, having all of you to play with. Vickie and I were talking about the three of us riding my pony Honey bareback. I'm thankful that I had the opportunity to reconnect with Teresa and you through Facebook. I'm sorry that we didn't have more time but God had other plans. It sounds like you had a great life with kids and grandkids. As much as you will be missed by Teresa, family and friends, you will live on forever in our hearts and we will all cherish the memories made through the years. Go rest high on the Mountain for your work here is done.

Until we meet again love you,

“ To my best friend: We shared a lifetime together (67 years). I was looking through pictures today of us at Granny's. Loved our camping trips, visits throughout the years. Secrets we shared. You and I had an unconditional special bond that could never be broken. I'm going to miss you so very much. With my lung cancer, I'll probably be right behind you. Meet me in Heaven by that lil shack we talked about by the clear river with all the animals under the giant elm tree. I'll keep in touch with Teresa for you. You touched so many lives with your humbleness and love. You were so much more than a cousin. You were my brother and best friend. I'll always love you and I'll try to be as brave as you were in this cancer battle. You left a wonderful legacy behind in all the lives you touched, especially mine. Until we're together again, enjoy all the beautiful colors you can now see and enjoy the reunions with our loved ones. I'll always keep you close in my heart and I'll love you forever ☞💔🥺✝️

“ Randy and I were best friends for twelve years . We worked together . Most people said that we sounded like an old married couple .. Together we could fix almost anything. I will miss Randy today and always.
