“ Amy and Jamie and Jacob I am so sorry to hear of Ray’s passing. Have been in Cartersville taking care of my daddy. I remember Ray fondly and his love for his dogs. We so enjoyed Socks and will always love him and you Amy for the chance to love her and give her a home. The grandkids still love to talk about her and talk of how they miss her. She was such a good babysitter when they were all young. Never leaving a young one alone. Dr Campbell always told everyone from the time I walked in with her that’s a Mimes dog. Didn’t even have to tell him. Ray built a name for himself. If it was his dogs his gardening or what he was known for doing it right. I know you will miss him. You are in my prayers.
