“ Dear Angie, James, Sybil, Donna, Terry, and Families,

My heart aches for the loss of another one of my childhood friends. Growing up we all had so much fun just being kids, teenagers, and young adults. I am so mad with myself for not visiting, calling, or writing Ray after I knew of his sickness. He never missed a time to speak to me and we always laughed about something. Ray, you will not be forgotten my pal; you will shine on in the hearts of all of us that were honored to call you friend.

*Always,
Tracey*

“ *Many prayers and blessings. We sure shared alot of laughs and jokes growing up. No place like where we all grew up. I know you have probably received a grand reunion up there by and family and friends. So so sad that you are not with us anymore. You will never be forgot my friend, my buddy and was always like a big brother. May you be at peace !
Many hugs and prayers to the family.*
