“ Raymond was a great man of prayer. He prayed a lot for our grandson, Michael Joseph! But the thing I remember most was as a mechanic he would put his arms around a motor or car & pray for it. Hod would help him to know what was wrong & he would be able to fix the problem I'm most of the cases. He was a very humble man but a great spiritual man & a great prayer warrior. There are not many men like Raymond Sayre! Larry & Sara Hammett

There is no one in this world quite like Raymond. He left his family with a wonderful heritage of what faith and trust in God really is. One of many great remembrances of Raymond is when, after becoming a Christian, a rat got into the kitchen and ran under one of the appliances. He was having trouble getting it to come out until he said, "In the Name Jesus, come out." Well, needless to say, the rat did that, indeed! After that prayer, there was no longer a rat problem. Raymond, Monte and Ron went and prayed for numerous people through years. He was such a blessing to many--whether it be fixing their cars or praying the prayer of faith for healing. He will be greatly missed! We loved him, dearly! Monte and Sandy Chittum
