

Reba Chapman

February 13, 1914 - August 18, 2006

A native of Crawfordville, GA, she had made her home in Putnam County for several years. She worked at the Royal Mfg Co. for a number of years; later she and her husband ran the "Chapman's Grocery" in Crawfordville . She also was a seamstress. She was the widow of the late Samuel W. Chapman and was a member of the Crawfordville Baptist Church.

Survivors include her Sons, Russell Chapman and wife Barbara of Eatonton, Samuel F. Chapman and wife Juanita of Columbia, Maryland, Franklin Chapman and wife Diana, of Glendale, Az. A Brother, James Lester Morrow of Colbert, GA. 6 grandchildren 7 great grandchildren

Tribute Wall

“ David and all the family, I am so sorry about Mrs. Reba. I have just found out about it or I would have been their. {David} we have been friends along time and If you need to talk you can reach me at Scenic Mountain Rv 478-4538683 Sincerely, Debra##imported-begin##Debra Collins##imported-end##

August 30, 2006 at 11:44 AM