“ *For the family,
Rebecca made a difference! In her handwriting, this verse came home from her Sunday School Class with my four year old son, forty years ago in February. It still serves as a bookmark today. She touched my life.*

*Love,
Carol*

“ We will miss Rebecca so very much. I have known her and Victor for many years and she even taught our girls in Sunday school at the first Methodist church. We were so fortunate to have reconnected with Victor and Rebecca when we joined Bethel Methodist church. Rebecca was such a loving, caring and compassionate lady. I can hear God tell her well done good and faithful servant. May she rest in peace in our heavenly father's arms. All our love to Victor and his family. Harold, Julie, Ariel, and Faith Ewers
