“ Years later here i am finding myself searching for answers wishing you were here. God knows i miss you and only hope im able to find Mrs. Sally! I lost alot of faith when i learned of your passing. All the sundays you both would pick me up from home just so i could be with yall at church and dropping me off. As a kid i never knew the true meaning of god but i found him in loving YOU AND MRS. SALLY. YOU baptised me watched me grow into a young lady guided me and never let me feel alone during family struggles.i never felt unloved or unwelcomed with yall! I just wanted to stop by and say i love and miss yall and may god always show me that you are with me with every step i take. May god say his words through me and for me. May you ALWAYS BE REMEMBERED WITH GRACE LOVE & WISDOM!

“ Sally, we are so broken hearted that this seems like it didn't happen. How we all loved him and he was the making of Bethel Church. You two were our love and just made a Sunday complete to see you two, one in the pulpit and one at the piano, what a pair you two were, beautiful.

You truly are in our hearts and prayers.

Hope to get to see you at the funeral even though Elbert is sick we might can make it he is having a fit to try.

Love ya dear and will never see a Consignment Shop that I don't think of you...smile.

Love and blessings,

Nell and Elbert
