“ Jerry was a wonderful man who brought a smile to my face everyday when I came to work at Green Acres. I will miss him on my future visits and I pray for his family during this time. May you all know how much he is missed and how much he meant on his time on this earth.##imported-begin##Sheila McCant##imported-end##

“ May Bro. Jerry rest in peace. I'd known him since my childhood, and I knew him to be nothing but a kind, caring, and loving individual.

Because of his witness, there's no doubt of where he's spending eternity.

It's comforting to have the assurance of spending eternity with Jesus. Do you have that assurance?##imported-begin##Scotty Rogers##imported-end##

“ I first met Jerry and Stevie when I worked at Central State Hospital many years ago. Both were faithful employees. Jerry was "one of a kind" as a radio preacher. He was a man with a faith that did not lend itself to "dressing up" for others. He told the truth as he saw it and preached from the same perspective. Certainly God has a place in a special room of his house for men like Jerry who simply told the truth as he saw it and preached from that same understanding. Rest now faithful Servant and await the resurrection to come.##imported-begin##Dr. Thomas Peavy##imported-end##

“ I first met Jerry in the mid 1960's while working at radio station WMVG. Jerry had a radio program then and was a spirit filled Pentecostal preacher.

During the last few years I became reacquainted with Jerry at Green Acres and he was still preaching and praising God. He had a strong witness and a faith that was to be envied.

Rest in peace Jerry, you were one of His most faithful.##imported-
