“ I am very sorry for your loss. Please take comfort in the promises found in the Bible at Acts 24:15 which promises a resurrection of our dear loved ones who are in Jehovah God's memory. Also revelation 21:4 promises that under Jehovah God's Administration, he will abolish all sickness, sorrow, pain and even death.

“ He was a good landlord to Mama and me. We always enjoyed chatting with him when he came by. We would talk about all sorts of things not just landlord/tenant things. We will miss him and pray that God will comfort his loved ones and grant them peace as they go through this time and each day as they learn to live without his earthy presence.

“ So Grandpa Richard I sit here thinking of some good old days. Remember I when I was on the run from MOM. You saw me walking. You stopped and told me to get in, you had a beer and asked me how I was doing. I told you I was on the run and we laughed. You give me some money and a hug told me to be safe.

I will always remember coming to your house going swimming, having my birthday parties, always had a great time at your house. You will be missed. I it hate that you never got to meet your great-grandson Matthew Allen Clark (Kowalczyk). Mom always called him her little po-neck, half redneck half polock. And yes, he does have my big ol forehead. LOL

Love you, Stacy Marie

“ Richard was the perfect man! I smile when I write this and Pam is laughing too! He welcomed me into his home when Pam and I had school in Milledgeville. He even bought a new bedroom suit for us to be comfortable. But my best memories were when he would bait my hook while I was fishing and then clean my fish. It wasn't long til Pam was on that dock with us and the competition started. LASP FAMILY IMAGINE THAT! Pam is from the area so on some nights she would go visit friends and Richard and I would just chill and watch TV. I really felt so welcome there and I will miss him so much! OMG and he loved cheesecake!!!

“ As a young girl I asked Dad to let me help him build houses one summer, and his response to me was, "you're a girl, you shouldn't be doing that." I asked him to let me help him work on his car and his response was, you're a girl. Well I can't build a house but I can change my own oil and replace spark plugs.

I feel I need to say the following, and I say it with love, Dad was a hard man to love. He was stubborn as a mule and stingy with the "I love yous." But, I know he loved us in his own way.

I would like to thank all of you who send us your love and condolences. We are truly grateful for your kindness.
