“ I only knew Mr. Rich for approximately six months but he touched alot of people's lives at Georgia Military College in Madison. He was an awesome teacher and so good at doing financial sums in his head at a drop of a hat. In the fall quarter he was at 100%, then he started the winter quarter at only 75% but was determined to follow through on his commitment to GMC. He was very courageous, he cared about his students and getting them to understand what he was teaching them. He will be sadly missed by all.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family Miss Candace.

Sue DoorenBos, former student of Mr. Rich's at GMC, Madison.

“ Mary Alice and I send our thoughts and prayers to Rich's wife, Candace, and their children.. For over 25 years, Rich was a co-worker and advisor whose professionalism and integrity were obvious in all that he did. Whether in a professional or a social setting, Rich was always a gentleman and a true pleasure to be with. More than that, he was a friend and I will miss him.

“ Rich and I were colleagues at Comsat Corp. in the 70's and 80's (dates are vague). At one point he was my finance VP. I respected his judgement, integrity, and resourcefulness, and remember consulting with him in later years when I had started my own company, and he his. I was saddened to hear of his passing, and offer his family my sincere condolences in this time of sorrow.

“ My heart and prayers are with you, Candace, and all your family. I knew Rich and his sister, Ginny, my best friend at the time, when we all were in high school. Rich was fun - and sometimes gave us a ride in his yellow Mustang - awesome thing to do - for an upperclassman and big brother! I know you will find strength in knowing that you will unite with Rich again - both in your glory with God. With Love, Donna Casey St. Joseph
