“ Ricky was a loving, kind, and would give you the shirt off his back kind of person. Have lots of memories of him coming to see my Daddy and brother when we were young. When my Daddy was sick Ricky and his family brought loads of food that helped us out a lot. Our thoughts, prayers and hugs to the family. Ricky until we meet again go rest high on that mountain. “ Linda, Amy, Christy, Deanna, Brian and Jackie, Ricky will surely be missed and we are praying that your fond memories will bring you peace and comfort as you mourn Ricky's passing. Ricky was an inspiration to Boy Scout Troop 87, He was a great friend and a mentor to those Scouts. He could always be counted on to assist the Troop on any outings and summer camp. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family during this trying time. Carrol, Chuck and John Griffin

“ Prayers and my condolences to the family. I worked with Ricky at Classic. He shared his vast knowledge with others and was always ready to answer questions. There was no one who knew more about Toyotas than Ricky. He was certainly a master of his trade. I pray GOD brings each of his family members comfort at this most difficult time.
