“Heaven gained an angel yesterday. This was one woman who never judged. She loved you for who you were and was a true blessing to this world. Aunt Barbara, Ashley, Amy & April. I am so sorry for your loss I know that all of us will grieve her passing but you three will endure the most. Its never easy to bury a child, mother, or sister. I pray that God wrap his arms around you all at this time and know that we come together as a family and we will be there with you through this time just like any other to comfort and protect you. Family sticks together!! Love to you all.
