“ To all the family and friends of R.L. Brannan Jr.,
I want to thank each person who has responded to our loss of my father. Daddy truly was the most humble and loving man that I have ever known. My mother has the honor of calling him her husband. Chris and I have the honor of calling him our Dad. We where very blessed to have had him in our lives. Every individual who was blessed with knowing him, knows that he was someone we could all count on. (and we always did) Throughout his illness, Daddy never once complained. Each need requested was ended with a "please" and followed by a "thank you". He never showed concern for himself, it was always for others. That's how he was. His essence in our lives will never be forgotten nor replaced. Please continue to pray for God to supply our family with the strength and guidance we will need in the days and weeks to come that will show us how to adapt to this new life without him.##imported-begin##Wendy Fuller##imported-end##

I am so sorry for the loss of your daddy. I know how close you are with your family. “ My heart goes out to you Wendy, for you and your family at this great loss. What heartache you must feel. It is good to know that Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you..." Your father doesn't hurt anymore but I know you do...I will continue to pray for you. God Bless each of you with comfort in the arms of one another during this time. Always, your friend and sister in Christ.##imported-begin##Michelle Brown##imported-end##
