“ Bob was my 1st Sales Manager, at my 1st Sales job. I was just a teen. We banged heads and I learned so much from him. Later in life we reconnected on Facebook and I can say he was my biggest mentor! Huge cheerleader, amazing friend. I knew he was ill or had been but I never knew to what extent. He never complained ever. I know I will see him again, and catchup again. For now, may he be enjoying Heaven to the fullest! 💕🌸🙏🌸💕

“ Growing up, Bobby DeGeorge was among my closest friends. We both grew up in East Norwich, we were in the same class at Saint Dominic's and we were both members of the track team. While running, Bobby had the heart of a lion. Whether at Sunken Meadow, Van Cortlandt Park or local colleges, you knew that he would either win, or be among the leaders, in any race he entered. He was simply amazing. Off the track, he was a gentle, considerate, loyal and fun loving individual. He influenced my taste in many things; as just one musical example, I recall his introducing me to John Mayall and the Bluesbreakers. I could go on, but rest assured that my deep connection and love for Bobby was shared by many who knew him.
