“ Dear Sandy and family,

It never seems fair when we lose people we are so close to. Bob was such a fine gentleman. We are honored to have known him. I enjoyed working with him on so many things for the association, the roof, the bar--b-ques and suppers/dinners, anything that needed to be doen, he was always there with his smil and his terrific attitude. He will be missed by everyone. Please know that you and your family are in our prayers. We are praying for you to have peace and strength at this time. If there is anything we can do, please do not hesitate to call.
