“ Mrs. Thompson, Ronnie and families. I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Mr. Jack. We just heard about it from church tonight. We always enjoyed sitting around eating fish and chatting with everyone around. Mr. Jack will be greatly missed and his memories will always remain for the remembrance of the best fish eating place around. We will keep you all in our prayers.##imported-begin##Eloise Griffin, Betsy Wilkes and family##imported-end##

“ We only had the priveledge of knowing Mr. Jack for a short while. He visited us in our new home and climbed all the way to the top of the stairs. Earlier that season we enjoyed feeding an alligator with the help of his pocket knife to cut some food for the creature. He struck us as a very kind man and hard worker. Our deepest sympathies to the family.###imported-begin##Ronald and Pamela Spivey###imported-end##

“ Mr. Jack was just a wonderful man.He will be greatly missed! I really enjoyed those days of having him sit next to us at the resturant and carry on a conversation with My uncle James Thompson from cochran. As a nurse, I got more familiar with him and his wife Mary Ivy. They where the greatest! I will forever miss Mr. Jack. My most heartfelt condolences go out to this wonderful family!##imported-begin##Kim##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Mary Ivey, Ronnie, & family. We were so sorry to hear of Mr. Jack's passing. We had many good times at Thompson's Cove with him. He would always pull up a chair and chat with us for a while. He never failed to ask "How's everything in McIntyre?" He will be missed by many, especially you, his family. Hold on to the many great memories, they will bring you comfort in days to come. Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. It is our prayer that God hold you in the palm of His hand and guide you as only He can do.##imported-begin##Billy & Tilda Matthews##imported-end##
