“ It's so hard to believe that Robert is not around anymore. I saw him about a month or so ago in a store. He, as always, had that big smile!

It's hard for me to think about Robert without thinking about Cottonwood, a band that we had in the seventies, (for the younger generation who probably never heard of us). What some times! I'll never forget!! After we got out of the band, we didn't see each other much anymore except in passing, usually while we were shopping somewhere in Milledgeville.

I'm so thankful that I will always have my memories of Robert and the times we had together on the road.

“ My heart felt condolences go out to Nan, Melissa, Brent, Delores, Danny and David, the grandchildren, all of Robert's friends. I had the great pleasure of being in Roberts first three bands. The Hitch Hikers. I always thought it was one word but the computer says not. Hitchikers turned into, Robert Rogers and the Rockin' Rivas (Pennington's Barn) and then the Royale V (Teen Club). He was a great Musician as many people know. But for the bands I was in, he was the Manager, Booking Agent, PR man and first class at all of it. It just came natural to him. He just loved doing it. He never wanted anything for doing it.

Over the last few days I've come to this chair several times to try and express how sorry I am for Robert's family and friends, and each time I'd sit down and just start thinking, not just about the music stuff, but reunions and just a lifelong friendship, the jokes, conversations about sports. Next thing I know my face is all wet. The monitor is all blurred, and I'd just feel stunned. Losing a life long friend suddenly and unexpected is just hard to put into words for me.

Love and prayers to him all all who love him May God Bless his family

“ Robert was a friend of mine. We met at the Georgia Vocational Rehabilitation Program. We were both rehab counselors and met at training events for this state program that helps people with disabilities gain independence and employment. We both were members of the professional organization for our jobs called the Georgia Rehabilitation Association. He used to Bar-B-Que our steaks on Thursday night. After he retired he served as the DJ at the GRA Annual Conference. My fondest memory was when Georgia played Auburn back in the early 2000's. Robert invited me down to Auburn to tailgate with him and his family and friends. My neighbor and I left Athens real early in the morning. In fact, we got to Roberts campsite so early, we woke him and his wife from sleep. I was embarrassed, but if you know Robert he just started laughing and teasing us about how bad Auburn was going to beat Georgia. We even tailgated with he and his family after the game. My neighbor was impressed by my friend and his graciousness and generosity. RIP my friend. By Gene Smith-,Athens, GA

“ I remember watching Robert and the guys performing on Friday nights at Pennington's Barn and being awe struck by the talent this young man possessed and the gracious manner he displayed in sharing this God given asset. Later, I would be overwhelmed by his pursuit of perfection and hard work he displayed when it was my honor and privilege to share our many experiences with the Royal V at the Log Cabin and all over Georgia and the Southeast. Robert will be missed by the entire Milledgeville community and the many friends he has made along life's journey. Heaven has been enhanced by this addition. We pray for the family during this time.

“ Nan, and family. Robert and I have known each other since high school. He and I often joked about a time when we both interviewed for the same position with the State of Georgia and realized we were interviewing against a stacked deck. A few weeks back we met while fueling our vehicles in Milledgeville and shared our Auburn connection, and news about family. When we were saying good-bye, Robert asked me to offer prayer for his family. I am so pleased to have been able to honor his last request of me.
