“ This is Lisa her daughter. Mom I miss you and love you so much. Memories, lots, too many to count. She and Dad always, and I mean always were at any and all of our sporting events, whether it be the soccer leagues we were in or high school sports. Mom, several times, would go by herself if it was too early in the day to wait for Dad. They were always supportive. Also, we forgot to mention, but anyone in town who knew her or anyone who talked to her knew she was an avid volunteer in several clubs including Newcomers. Women's Club, Harriet's Closet at the hospital, and Veterans events. She was truly a remarkable woman and I wish I had the opportunity to tell her that more often. She's still watching over us. The ones we love never really leave us. They are in the family she nurtured, friends that were touched by her, and Dad who stood by her side. We'll be remembering her for as long as we can. Love you, Mom.

“ I have many fond memories of Aunt Bert, mostly at holiday times. She would play the piano and we would sit around the fire singing Christmas carols. My father (her brother) was usually the loudest. It was like a Norman Rockwell painting. I will miss our conversations.
