“ I lived for 10 years across the street from Robins brother Gary and his wife . Her mother came in the salon I worked in and I don't do her hair but I would talke to her about her family . Then I started doing Lily and Graces hair which lead me to doing Robins.it was like I had been doing her hair for a very long time . She was an interesting lady who was full of life and lessons . I am going to miss you Lady . I will see over you girls for you . Love you lady .□□□

“ Having resided in Milledgeville several times, my path crossed with Robin. I found her to be quite personable & "the life of the party". My present husband was dear friends of her brother, Gary, whom he fondly called "Coffey".

Whenever I must say goodbye to those I've treasure, I take comfort in this: Because of the promise of eternal life, we'll be reunited one day in our heavenly home.

My thoughts & prayers are with Robin's family.
