“ Ronnie and I were classmates from elementary through high school.
"If silence were money he could buy the world" was the caption with his senior class photo. His demeanor was like that. We both served in the Navy although not on the same ships, I knew he served and I appreciated that. Men who go to sea in ships are cut of a different cloth than others. We know the rigors of serving at sea and have a bond from that service. Now my Shipmate has been called to a port of eternal rest beyond turbulent waters. Fair winds and following seas Shipmate and enjoy eternal liberty in your new home port.

This old Senior Chief salutes you for a job well done.##imported-begin##Dr. Thomas Peavy##imported-end##

“ Joyce & Family,
You're in our prayers, we're sorry for your loss but God needed him in heaven to prepare a place in heaven for his family when their called. But now is not the time for sorrow, it's a time to rejoice that Ronald has graduated in heaven, and Jesus has you and your family in his arms. Be strong for each other. Ronald is still with ya'll in your hearts and minds.

“ Joyce, Ronnie and Brian

My thoughts and prayers are with you all. I know Ronald is going to be greatly missed. I didn't get to see him much at work because he was on evening shift and I was on day shift but I will always remember Ronald, he bought me a two dial watch before I got married almost 10 years ago. He knew we were going to Las Vegas on our honeymoon. Actually, Joyce I think you purchased it at Walmart. He told me I would be able to set Georgia time and Las Vegas time. I have taken that watch with me each time I have gone to Las Vegas. And I will think of him every time I use it. Ronald and I use to talk alot about going to Cherokee and the trips that you and he took to Tunica. That was one of the things we had in common. We liked the slot machines. He enjoyed his travels with you Joyce because I could tell it in his voice. He well be greatly missed at Plant Branch.

May God bless and comfort you all.
