“ Ronnie, a first-class send-off for a first-class soul. I am sure you were proud because I sensed you all around. Your good friend Bill beathed life into you one last time for all of us :) We will always love you and only hope to share an even an ounce of the kindness that you shared. “ Mr. Ronnie I will never forget the kindness you extended to me when my Daddy passed. (Cotton Taylor) I proudly wear the Harley t-shirt with the cotton field on it that you gave me. Every time I saw you, you made it a point to let me know you were looking out for me...almost like you knew that's what I needed to hear with my Daddy gone. There wont ever be another you, but the world sure could learn a lot from your sweet spirit. May you rest in peace...send my love to my Daddy.

“ Oh Ronnie I miss you so much already! You taught me so much over the years and I will never forget any of it, especially "Yes Mam No Mam Thank You Mam Please". You cooked me some of the best meals as Chef LeRoy and even though we butted heads in the beginning, over the years you became on of my BEST and MOST LOVED friends! I can still hear you singing "Im gonna darken your eye gonna make you cry cry cry, then Im gonna bloody your nose gonna make it run to your toes" that was hilarious. You had such a good heart. I will cherish the gifts you have given me forever, I really wish I knew what you made for me that you were going to give me next time we saw each other. You will always be with me in my heart and I will Love you forever! Thanks for the good times! Catch ya on the flip side!

“ Sorry to hear about Ronnie's passing. He was an all round good ole' guy and I will always enjoy the memories of skipping class to go to the lake and get something to eat and then sneaking back in to school to finish the day. I haven't seen him in quite a while but know that if I had stopped by he would have welcomed me just like he always did years ago when Ginny and I would visit on our way back to Savannah.

“ My heart aches. There are not enough words to describe Ronnie Wright!!! He was a sensitive, caring, giving, loving person who always had time for everyone - family, friends and strangers alike. He brought a smile to my face and a warm fuzzy feeling to my heart whenever I had the pleasure of seeing him. What a joy to have him pull up beside me on his motorcycle and blow special kisses my way. From time to time he would come by my office just to check on me. The receptionist would call back to tell me I had a visitor and what a WONDERFUL SURPRISE to round the corner and see Ronnie. He always said I was his "future wife" and not to worry myself that he was taking care of all the wedding details. Oh, how he would make my day. He could always lift me up when I was feeling down. He loved his family and cared about mine. He always asked about "Mama" and told me that's where I needed to be and to take good care of her. Ronnie was a bright ray of sunshine in all our lives. He will be missed. I thank God that I had the pleasure of knowing Ronnie and calling him a dear friend. Love you Ronnie Wright.

“ I first met Ronnie at one of the Wright family reunions held at the farmhouse just south of Toombsboro in the mid 1980's. I was a kid and needless to say I had never met anyone like him. A magnetic personality for sure. He visited my family from time to time and as I grew older every time we passed each other he always had time for me. Time to talk about any and everything. He first question was always "How's your family?" I had the chance to re-connect with Ronnie over the past month or so on Sundays. I introduced my children to him and he smiled from ear to ear. I'm glad that happened. He was a kind soul and a person I will truly miss. To his family please accept my deepest sympathies. I will miss him a great deal.

“ Ronnie has been in my life for as long as I can remember. We grew up in Scottsboro and were in the same grade. We played army one afternoon so long all of our parents were looking for us and we got in alot of trouble. Ronnie was always good at getting us into trouble. Our paths crossed alot during our lives and he was always that same loving kid I grew up with. He had a longing to be loved by everyone he met and he never met a stranger and I don't think he ever realized how much he was loved. “ .I have been flooded with memories of us having the most fun any two people could have! From grade school, until last week, when you called me in ICU and had me laughing when you wanted to know " They wake you to see if you're sleeping okay?" I will cherish the memories of our long running friendship, but the last few weeks are extra special, looking up and seeing you at my door and sitting and talking about your great nephew. He will climb that tree house, just to get a little closer to his Uncle Ronnie! I don't think we had a conversation that didn't include your Mama and Daddy, we both had that void in our lives. You were the first person I saw, the morning after a tragic accident in my yard. it was barely daylight, but Ronnie came to see about Faye. Ronnie, you are the best. I am glad that you included me as one of your friends,I am rich because you did. God bless you my friend, there won't be a day that I will look for you on that Harley when I meet one in the road. You smiled and laughed and told funny stories and were the life of the party. I knew you since I was a teen-ager and you and Brad and Jimmy Wayne Arnold would hang around every day together. You lived at our house for a while and Mom was like your own Mother. She was heartbroken to hear the news today. I dedicated a song to you today on Facebook...It was Lynyrd Skyrnd's "Free Bird." Been sitting here reading these tributes and listening to the Allman Brothers, Lynyrd Skynrd, Willie Nelson and so many other Southern bands that we used to listen to together. Enjoying the many trips down "memory lane" with your friends...and family. Is there any body that you did not know? “ Ronnie... dear Ronnie. If I would have known saturday night was going to be the last night I would ever be able to dance with you..I would have picked a song that would have never ended. You were such a special person in my life and I hate you were taken away so quickly. Ill never be able to thank you enough for all the kind words, jokes and laughs, dances, and looking out for me. You always took care of your ladies =] I cant wait to see you in heaven and ask God "is this guy bothering you?". Rest in peace dear Ronnie. There will never be another like you and we will hold you in our hearts forever.

“ My heart is heavy with sadness over the loss of Ronnie.... I sure will miss hearing that motorcycle pull up and Ronnie strolling in and getting his BBQ sandwich and sweet tea and truly entertaining me with his conversations... He was a sport model.... Let everyone be a treasure in your life....you never know when they will not be here.... My thoughts are with his family

“ Ronnie Wrong, we had our ups and downs but you always thought you were doing the right thing. Thanks for the wonderful memories and helping Marisa move. You will be truly missed by me and Marisa. I was going to say, "rest in peace", but that doesn't sound like you at all, so I hope you're having a great time in heaven with Jeff, Linton, Bo, and Keith! Until we meet again!

“ Ronnie was the kind of person that my granny described as " You know he has God in his heart, because it shows on his face"! He always had a smile on his face and always said "I love you" before he left. May God give comfort to his family and many, many friends at this time. Till we meet again, my friend. I love you....

“ Ronnie "Wrong", my special friend. We all miss you already. I loved you with all my heart. You always made my day when you came in the door at Sonny's with that smile and little bouncy walk. You were so special to me; I will miss your smile, dancing with you, watching you and Sonny play pool, having a cold beer with you, buying you a cold beer, and all of our good times and foolishness. My heart is so sad and I cannot believe you have left us. My only consolation is knowing you are now with you beloved mama and she has her arms wrapped safely around you. We will grieve and be sad but we will celebrate your life as I know you would want us to do. Look in on us from above and watch over us until we meet again my special friend. R.I.P and I love you, bye.

Hey Jimmy, you and Brad were the first people that I thought of when I heard this tragic news. You were best friends growing up and I thought of both of you like my own brother. You practically lived at our house...all those trips to the river and just sitting around Mom's house talking. You, Jimmy Wayne , and Ronnie were truly "part of the family." Love you both.
