“ My heart goes out to your family. I am so sorry for your loss. What pain hurts worse than the pain of losing someone that you love? Though the pain you're feeling must seem unbearable, please remember that you are not alone. Psalms 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. Weep to Him when there are no words. One of the poets of the Bible said at Psalms 56:8, "You keep track of my wandering. Do collect my tears in your skin bottle." You see, God understands your pain and He cares for you very much (1 Peter 5:7). And He will really help you get through this difficult time (Isaiah 41:10).

“ To me, my father-in-law, was a charming, handsome, and loving man, who had a strong spirit within him that was magnetic. He was funny and his presence lit up a room. I am deeply honored and feel very privileged to be married to his son, Eric, who is the love of my life. It is one of life's greatest gifts to have known and loved Eric's Dad, Roy Carter.

“ It is hard to lose a dad, regardless of your age. I remember first meeting Roy when Alicia & Eric got married. I thought I was looking at Eric's twin because they looked so much alike. Also, the grandchildren have his features. Because of this, take comfort in knowing he will always be around.

“ Papa Roy, I miss you dearly. You were the best grandfather anyone could ever ask for. You always knew how to brighten my day with your smile and laugh! How I wish I could hear that laugh one more time. I'm ready to see you again in Heaven! You mean the world to me, Papa. I thank the Lord above for taking you with him. No more pain or suffering will you ever have to endure. I was your heart and you were my best friend. Everything I do from now on will be in remembrance of you.
