“ I worked as a nurse in the nursing home where Mr. Miller’s mother was a resident. He was a good and faithful son always coming to see about his mom. This always touched me and I will never forget him.

“ I will always remember Roy. He was a man of God and a role model for us youngsters at FCC. I will never forget taking attendance and serving communion on Sundays. He was always joking and smiling. Though he may be gone from this Earth, his presence will continue to be with those of us who knew him. I’m certain he and Tom are up there together having a good old time. Joyce, stay strong and rest assured, he is in a better place. My prayers are with you.
