“ I am sorry that the news of Ruth's passing didn't reach me until Monday and Diane and I therefore didn't have opportunity to attend her service. I'm glad to see the video was available online here. I was able to watch the entire service from home, and I'm more impressed that ever with Ruth's achievements. The last few times I saw Ruth, I was saddened to see her declining in physical form, but she was never diminished in spirit. When Diane and I were first married and bought our first house just down the street, the Roach family quickly became our best neighborhood friends, and soon the friends of our children Emory and Nicole, for whom Anna often baby-sat. Ruth and Ollie never failed to ask after our children long after they had grown, moved out of state, and formed new families of their own. We are deeply sad that Ruth is gone from us now, but she is beyond the world of earthly worries and we are happy that this gracious, kind-spirited, and good-humored lady was part of our lives.

Ollie, I am so sorry about Ruth. I tried to find your telephone, but couldn't find it. I even called the Shop to see if he had a phone number in there.sorry I was not able to attend the service. I only go to the doctor to check me out. I can't walk without someone going to help with me. Maybe I can talk to you after everything has gotten everything straightened. Wish I had gotten been able to to go to the service. I know you will miss Ruth.Take it as good as you can.
