“ To the Brock family. So very sorry to hear of your loss. Remembering when we had not been here as full time lake people very long, she James and Greg stopped by and we went for a pontoon ride. We attended church together when she was able and she was always smiling and gracious to everyone. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I hope you can take some comfort in the knowledge that she is in a better place, with your dad and other family and no longer suffering. She is smiling with Jesus!

“ Memama There are so many things that I could say about you, and none of them would do you any justice. I will never be able to fully put into words how much you meant to me, but I can go on for the rest of my life trying. you have been one of the few people that have been there for me, morning to night. You would sit and listen and sometimes give me that look but you loved me and you loved your family. You were the strongest woman I knew no matter what came your way. Thank you for unconditionally loving me, no matter what I did. With you, I have never had to live up to an expectation. You fawned over my slightest of accomplishments and made me feel like a superhero, even on my worst days. You were a no judgment zone. My safe haven. I never have to be anything, but myself with you. Most of all, you are not just my grandma. You were my best friend. Whenever I needed something, I knew that you were there. Whether it is strong, sound advice that you never fail to always make me loved especially when I needed it the most. Because of you I found my way and truly found God. Now you are with God and papa and mama. You have been waiting a long time for God to call you home and now you are there . I know that now you are there you would never want to come back . I will love you forever and I will see you again one day.
