My brain is still in shock. You were the reason I had anything that I owned. You made sure that I had work, you made sure that I was taken care of. You made sure my son and my husband had everything that they needed. You are a very very good friend are the best friends that I could ask for. There's a lot of different kinds of friends out there but you were a true one. I love you so much Samantha and I miss you more than words can explain. My heart hurts so bad. One of the only good friends I had in this world. You were truly a gift. God wanted to gift back and there was nothing I could do to stop that. Rest easy baby we love you “ Samantha, the most feisty of us all. I remember when you were little if something wasn't going your way or you didn't like something you knew how to let everyone know by grtting them teeth together and letting out a reeeee!!!. I remember when you were 2 and you decided to stroll the neighborhood and we found you walking down the side of the road. I remember you and Becky playing together as kids and us always together. You can't never wish for more time when time has past, but I do. I wish I knew you had troubles that aled you I would've taken them for you. I wish I knew you had these pains that aled you I would've taken them for you. If I only knew more and if we were only like we were when we were younger, more together. If only! But you can wish for more time all you want but it won't change. But I will not let your passing go unjust. When we were kids and younger we always had a glue that kept us together and from here on out I vow to be that glue and stick to my family and hopefully it sticks to them so we are stuck together once more. I'm sure with your love and personality that you've made it into a lot of minds in GA as well and I hope to here some of there stories. You always found the way to love your family and we will get that back and always celebrate you for bringing us together. I love you and I prayed to God to embrace you. I will always hold you in my heart Samantha Smith.
