Praying for Mike, Jenny, Jill, Mikey, and their wonderful families. What an amazing wife/mom you all have! She will be truly missed, but is alive in you! What a wonderful celebration of her life! Listening to Elvis made me laugh and dance which I know Sandy is doing right now! May her joy in life continue to live in you, your children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren!

“ I love Mike and Sandy. When I first started going to church at island creek. We would see who got to church first to get in the pew in front of Johnny and Alice Smith. We are praying for your family.

“ I spent alot of time at the home of Mike and Sandy Black as a kid and young teen since Jill and I were so close. Sandy was always warm, welcoming and easy going. She made me feel part of the family and was like another mama..Such precious memories of a precious lady who is absolutely celebrating with her heavenly father right now

“ Sandy is my mother in law, but she never treated me like an “in law”, rather as her own. She was a wonderful lady, wife, mother and friend. She always had thoughtful and sound advice, mixed with a good sprinkling of wit and sarcasm! Honest and loving, always there for us. Love and miss you “Maw”.

A great group of people. Happy to still be able to work with some of you and miss the rest. I have very fond memories of talking with Sandy about her family, places she had visited and just her dry wit, common sense, and no bull approach to the world.

The old SRMC IT gang. Those were the days. This picture always puts a smile on my face. So many wonderful people to have had the opportunity to work with. So glad to have met Sandy through this path of my life and to get to know her. One thing you knew if you knew Sandy she loved and was very proud of her family. She was a devoted friend, a good listener. would do anything for you with a smile. I also had the privilege to get to know her daughter, Jill through the good old days of the "Food Group" which gave me an insight to how much her family admired their mother. I know that Sandy was the anchor to her family and will missed terribly. Honored to call her my friend.

*I spent countless nights up drinking coffee and laughing with this beautiful lady! We spent so many birthday (for both ourselves and our children) together, so many weddings, and even a funeral side by side. She made me smile, held me when I cried and was the person I always wanted to be just like. I now have her looking over me and all the people she loved. I will miss her so much, wish she was here for me to cry on her shoulder now!!!
My friend, my sister, my rock!*
