“ I grew up with Scott and his family in Riddleville. There wasn't much that our family, the Bailey's and Bryan's didn't do without each other. As we grew older, we all went in different directions, but here recently, I have had the chance to meet up with Scott again. He and I both talked, what seemed to be everyday, at work. I'm in customer service and he was in scheduling. We had many a talks about the good ol' days. Work will never be the same. My prayers for all the family!! Scott was a great guy and will be missed dearly!

“ Growing up in Riddleville, I used to go over to Scott's house and we would play video games all night long. Go fishing and went to the same little church together. Even though our lives went different paths. I always thought of Scott as a long time friend. I used to listen to him play those drums, usually beating to the tune of Alabama. My Prayers go out to his wife, children and both families. Can not believe he is gone, however I know he is in a better place probably playing the drums for Jesus (Alabama). God Bless, Darin Hall
