“ "The Final Inspection" ”

*The policeman stood and faced his God,
Which must always come to pass.
He hoped his shoes were shining.
Just as brightly as his brass.*

*"Step forward now, policeman.
How shall I deal with you?
Have you always turned the other cheek?
To My church have you been true?"*

*The policeman squared his shoulders and said,
"No, Lord, I guess I ain't,
Because those of us who carry badges
can't always be a saint.*

*I've had to work most Sundays,
and at times my talk was rough,
and sometimes I've been violent,
Because the streets are awfully tough.*

*But I never took a penny,
That wasn't mine to keep....
Though I worked a lot of overtime
When the bills got just too steep.*

*And I never passed a cry for help,
Though at times I shook with fear.
And sometimes, God forgive me,
I've wept unmanly tears.*

*I know I don't deserve a place
Among the people here.
They never wanted me around
Except to calm their fear.*

*If you've a place for me here,
Lord, It needn't be so grand.
I never expected or had too much,
But if you don't.....I'll understand.*

*There was silence all around the throne
Where the saints had often trod.
As the policeman waited quietly,
For the judgment of his God.*

*"Step forward now, policeman,
You've borne your burdens well.
Come walk a beat on Heaven's streets,
You've done your time in hell."*
