“ Shane we have so many many memories it would take me a week to fill this out. A few memories I have of us in riding bikes at your house on Jackson lake rd when we were kids. Walking to grandmas work from school every day. Playing Nintendo in grandmas basement. We went fishing with granddaddy and my Dad in Florida multiple times a year. We were always close, like the big brother I didn't have. We got even closer over this last year with you living a street over and was really enjoying how much we got time we spent together. You have no idea how much this has affected us and how much you will be missed. I will never get over this. You will always be on my mind, and I will do everything I can to keep your memory alive. I miss and I love you.

“ he came to our wedding late and of course it was just Shane being Shane and we had a little altercation with people getting out of hand at the end of the reception and it made me cry and Shane was the first person to handle the situation and the first person to come over and hug me and said “you’re family,, you’re my sister now” and god will i miss him picking on me with the way i talk sometimes.

“ When I think of Shane I think of that cute little kid. The time when went to Disney World with all the little boys holding hands and all the trick a treating we did in the neighborhood. It had been awhile since I saw Shane but I did get to see him in June. After he realized who I was he grinned big and gave me a big hug. I am so thankful for that time. He has always had a big heart. He will truly be missed.

“ I will never forget you teaching Cassie and I about WWE wrestling as kids and digging up quartz with you . Your smile was always comforting even as a kid it put me at ease when we would visit. You were such a good and caring person and always made a point to check in on Cassie and I . I wish we could have had our family get together we tried to plan on several occasions but you are flying high in heaven now with Your Dad and Mine. No doubt you are shining bright! Love you Cousin! ! !
