“ I knew of shannon thru Mrs. Pat Shepard and she had worked with my baby sister Hailey at Zaxbys. But several months ago at the ball park I got to personal meet her and her son Keyon. And several times she visited at Mrs. Pats house and we talked. She was a beautiful person who loved her son and her family. I am so sorry to see that her life was taken from her. To her family: I am so sorry for your loss. May GOD put his arm around you and give you comfort as you deal with the loss of Shannon.My prayers are with you all!!!##imported-begin##Wendy Sears##imported-end##

Dang... Its hard to believe its been 4 years since I last seen my buddy Shannon. She was such a good hearted person. Always silly having fun doing whatever she was doing where ever she was. There was always a good vibe when she was around. I worked with Shannon at cracker barrel and if there was a day that wasn't going good, when she came in she ALWAYS put a big smile on my face. I still think about her all the time. I miss her soooo much. The family was blessed Shannon came in their lives. She's a awesome person all the way around. I honestly can't say one bad thing about her. I hate her life was cut so short. I was very blessed to have her come in my life. My prayers are with all the family.

*Shannon you will ALWAYS be loved and missed!!
