“ After a night out of shopping or dining, Sharon and I would sit around her house and play games, sometimes all night. We are both competitive and that made the experience hilarious. I miss you, Girlfriend. Rest in the comfort of God's arms.

Love You,

“ Sharon was one of the sweetest and kindest person I every knew. She was always ready to lend a helping hand to a friend, or anyone she knew could use some help. I know she will be greatly missed. God has a new Angel in heaven. She was a good friends and neighbor to me before she met her prince in shining armor and moved away. She truly loved Gerald and was so happy, I am so sorry suffered like she did. God bless all her family.

Love to all her family,
