“ Dear Aunt Rita my heart hurts for your loss. This good man, the love of your life came to you late in life. The richness of your love is an inspiration. Your devotion to one another was genuine and so lovely to see. I know this past year was a difficult one for you both. Sly trying so hard to be the husband he wanted to be for you and you working hard to be a loving caregiver to this man you loved so dearly. God gave you each other if even for a short time. You have beautiful memories and those final words to each other you will cherish the rest of your life here on this earth. My love to you. Hugs and a massage whenever you need them. Some people come into our lives for a reason and some for a season. These 2 years were an opportunity for you to know what it is to be cherished by a man. He was blessed with a wife whose love was, as promised, for better or for worse. Until the end, until you see him again. Sly rests in the arms of his Lord and Savior.

Love you,
Deb (niece)
