“ Joe, Chasity, Joey, Jeff and Family, I am in such shock to learn of Sue's Passing! First and foremost this Family has always been so loving and caring to every single person they come in contact with, but my Precious Sue was the Absolute Angel of the Moran Clan! I have so many Beautiful memories at their home that I will treasure forever. Sue was a jack of all trades from raising her beautiful children, taking care of Joe, working at Old Capitol Wrecker Service, keeping a Beautiful Home, Raising Fur babies for us all to cherish, and Lord her and Chasity even doing my hair and nails for me! My Grandma always told me that the Lord only picks the best flowers for his bouquet and he sure did pick the Best with Sue! I will cherish all the memories with her and will love her forever until we meet again! Keli

“ I personally did not know Susan Moran. My condolences to her loving Family and her husband who feels the weight of losing his wife . I am a possible kin as i have seen Moran sir name in my family tree and in my late brothers wife 's family . plus my late husbands tree , whether they are connections i have not did the search on the Moran name, but in going over different branches i come across the name. my prayers are with all of you . Gertrude Brooks Lewis. my late brother was Jimmy Lee Brooks .
