Sylvia was truly a friendly and loving person. I worked with Sylvia many years at Rheem. It was heart felt to see her on the funeral home web site. Since the closing of Rheem I had not seen her until about 3 or 4 months ago where we seen each other at Crockett, and we both recognized each other with plenty of hugs and chatting about our grand babies. Working at Rheem for the most of us we became families. To her family continue to remember the fond memories. In time of sorry cast your cares unto the Lord, because He cares, and He will sustain you. God Bless Her family and that they not lean to their own understanding, but trust in the Lord with all thy heart, all thy mind, and with all thy might. God Bless!
