“ Tammy, I miss you my friend. The many mornings we spent talking before the bus route. You were a wonderful, caring person. Talking to you I could always see how much you cared about your grandchildren and the kids on your bus. You always had a moment for me if I needed to vent. It seems so unreal that I can't just call you right now but God had other plans for you. I pray that your grandchildren get to know just how special you were and a part of you lives on through them. My condolences to Shelby and the family. God Bless you, your friend, Kathy Wildes.
