“ She was the best of the best. She was kind to her core. She loved unconditionally. She was thoughtful and caring. The list of kind words I could use in her regard are endless. She was a Mom she didn't have to be. She loved me, even when I felt I wasn't lovable. She taught me to be a Mom. The mark she's left in my life will carry on through my sons. She's left behind a legacy in every child she ever taught. She will be missed dearly by everyone who knew and loved her.

The selfish side of me is so sad she's gone, && wishes we had more time on Earth together, but in my soul, I know she's dancing again. That she is in no pain. && the best part, she gets to meet Jesus. ❤️😭
