“ All of us at Liberty Chapel, especially the praise team, are going to miss Terry. He was a great friend and Brother in Jesus. Much love to all of you and heartfelt prayers as you pass through these days. Thank God for precious memories....how they linger, how they satisfy the soul. In the stillness of the midnight, precious memories flood our souls.

“ The memories go back so far. When he played and sang with my band The Family Affair in the seventies and eighties. I will miss my brother in Christ so much. To any situation and type of music, Terri added so much. Rest peacefully my friend and I know the band you will be playing with now will be amazing. Love you

*Hello, To Terry's children. I'm Steve Stravino, Terry's best friend and I just found out that he died back in February 2022. I'm very sad about this. Could some one from his family get back to me and tell me what happened to him. I had called several times over the following 3 months and had no idea he was gone. Thank you 🙏🙏🙏

“ Terry will be missed by so many. He was so tenderhearted and loving to all. He was the original writer of the Freedom Easter Program and sang so beautifully as well. I have no doubts he is walking with Jesus Christ and Lynn in Heaven.

“ I knew Terry and Lynn Fortune. Lennie and I went to church with them at Freedom church in Milledgeville. They were the one's that brought the Easter play to Freedom. Terry was a great guitar player. His family's harmonies were well known , where ever they sang.8
