“ Grandaunt Thomasina was a beautiful, joyful & radiant soul. I still remember meeting her in my teen years while visiting with family in Georgia. She had such a warm and embracing spirit, which resonated with all those around her. The many conversations we shared were always such a sweet & comforting part of my day. I know she will be dearly missed. I pray her and her twin brother Thomas, are peacefully reunited by the Lord's mercy & grace. My mother, siblings & I cherished every moment in her presence, and she will forever be in our prayers. I also pray for strength & healing for all those who will miss her most dearly. - Assitan Kouyate (Terri Pleasant's daughter).

“ What I remember about my Grandmother was how she loved to learn about the world around her. She was an avid reader. I'd hear her reading in her room out loud often and it would inspire me to seek a moment or two and escape into an interesting book or article . I imagined it kept her mind sharp. She also loved music especially those from her era. she would dance showing us all the moves or sing along to the tunes. It was great seeing her with a smile on her face reminiscing over moments of joy. Rest in peace Grandma. I'm grateful for the memories and appreciate you in more ways than one.

Love you forever, Kiturah Eddington

“ The best memory I have of my grandma is how she would talk about all of the fabulous clothes and shoes that she used to wear, then she would proceed to try on any heels I brought that reminded her of a pair she used to have. I loved to make her laugh and sit and watch movies with her. She would ask so many questions about the movie as we were watching it, lol. I love her and will miss her so much.
