Tina Lynn (daddy always called you this), you, Angie and Marty were always the most well mannered children of the family. I don't think for once that you never not said, "Yes Mam or Sir" or "No Mam or Sir" to any one. You always had that respect and always showed the LOVE you had for every on. You will truly be missed by me and every one. I miss you so much already but I can just see you smiling arm in arm with your mom and the rest of the family. I know you fought and have won the battle with this nasty disease, PAIN FREE within! Look out for Jason while you are up there and hug him for me. RIP Tina!

“ I was thinking back tonight of how long I have known Tina. It would be about 37 years. She and I fought like siblings in school and yet we were friends. We were friends later on as adults in the 80's. I lost touch with her until a few year back on Facebook. She fought an amazing fight and with as much strength as she fought she loved even harder. My prayers for the family in your loss.
