A gathering and Life Appreciation will be held on January 9, 2021 at Williams Funeral Home Chapel from 2 P.M. until 4 P.M. for friends to visit and Celebrate her life.

In loving memory of Dr. Tish Seay who passed away on December 22nd, 2020. Tish was a devoted mother, grandmother, wife and friend. She began her career in 1969 as a school level principal in a center for children with disabilities. Tish continued her service to children with disabilities for the next 20 years until she began her tenure at Georgia College & State University. During this time, she was appointed by Governor Zell Miller to serve on the state Interagency Coordinating Council for Early Intervention Programs. She also was as a member and a chairperson of the Middle Georgia Interagency Coordinating Council. She spent her life in public service and advocating for people with disabilities. In 2009, she retired to spend time with her devoted husband, her two daughters and two grandchildren. If you knew Tish, you knew the many stories of her grandchildren and her love for them. She also loved to travel with Tybee being one of her favorite spots. She will be remembered for her smiling face, love for life and devotion to her family and friends.

She is survived by her husband, Ben Seay and two daughters Susan (Gabe) Stone and Mardi Hennly, and son Aaron (Elizabeth) Seay, her granddaughters Allison and Autumn Stone, her sister Diane (Ed) Patmore and her brother Joe (Patricia) Robinson.
