“ Mrs. Harris my condolences to you and your family. I'm a graduate of the Class of 87 and took every course that Mr. Harris taught and really thought alot of him. He gave me a hard time but he did it for the right reason. He must have done a good job since he trusted me to help the new kids when I was a senior. Don't know that you remember me but I even came by to see him at home some. My thoughts and prayers to you.

Jessica I am so sorry for you and your families loss. I know y'all have really had some tough heartbreaking times recently. I was hoping and praying things would get better. May your Dad be at peace now and all of you knowing he is no longer suffering. I know it doesn't help yo heartaches or the loss you feel now but just knowing he is no longer suffering is a blessing. I love you babe.
